

The show runs 3 days.
Extend your message another 365.

Your newest and best products are on the floor. Your story is well prepared. You are on top of your game.

It's a great opportunity to capture "what's hot/what's new" in a video for your website ... IEEE.tv ... YouTube ... marketing materials ... and more.

New this year, iVIDEOinc will be on the floor of the IEEE EMC 2008 show to capture your message in a professional video production. Our brand of video is highly engaging and will tell your story in ways that make a lasting impact.

Call today for details and to schedule our crew at your booth.

The IEEE EMC 2008 Organizing Committee has selected iVIDEOinc to provide exhibitors with optional on-site production services. The goal is to help you cost-effectively capture your story so it can be shared and retold throughout the year. It's a great way to maximize your show investment!
